"TIME TO SHARE THE GOSPEL"

John Greene, Senior Pastor

LUKE 2:10, 17 (NASB)

TRUTH: Many of us miss the opportunities at Christmas to share the Good News of Jesus Christ.

I. TO TELL THE GOOD NEWS YOU MUST ENJOY IT YOURSELF.

INSIGHT: You won't be motivated to share what you don't enjoy.

TRUTH: Good news becomes great joy when it becomes personal.

INSIGHT: The power of the Good News is what it's done for you! (Psalm 107: 2a, Msg)

INSIGHT: We enjoy the Good News day by day, choice by choice.

INSIGHT: There's a difference between Christmas traditions and Christmas reality.

TRUTH: We only find joy in the reality of what Christmas is about (Psalm 107:22, NCV).

II. MAKE TIME TO TELL THE GOOD NEWS (Galatians 4:4).

III. PLAN IT.

Some plans to consider:

1. Pray.
2. Read to your kids.
3. Have a Christmas movie night at home and invite others.

INSIGHT: The best way to tell the Good News is begin listening... that's what Jesus did.

4. Invite them to Christmas Eve Candlelight here on "The Hill."
5. Give someone hope!

IV. TRUST GOD.

INSIGHT: The Good News often takes time to sink in. Just trust God.

TRUTH: We don't pressure people with the Gospel; we tell people the Gospel, and God changes them.
